WANTS STEAMER SOLD.

Alleging that he is part owner of the steamer Jane Moseley, that the boat is about to be seized by the E. J. O'Connell Company, of Baltimore, for debts amounting to $14,017.74, and that he has received no interest on a $2,000 investment in the property, Earle H. Parker yesterday filed suit in Washington asking that a receiver be appointed by the court and the boat sold. Parker asserts that on January 30, 1907, at the request of Lewis J. Henson, who, together with Mary S. Brown, is named as defendant in the suit, he invested $2,000 in the boat, with the understanding that large profits would accrue therefrom. The Moseley is one of the oldest steamers on the Potomac. She came here from New York in the early part of the year 1875, and for a long time ran on the route between Washington, Alexandria and Norfolk. Recently she has been used as an excursion boat by colored people.

FOOTBALL.

The Alexandria Athletic Club will play the Garley Athletic Club on Saturday afternoon at 4:15. The Garley Club is one of the strongest teams in Washington. With Nesbit, McBride, and Cockrell, three of Alexandria's star players, they expect to defeat Garley by a large score.

In a finely contested game at the Naval Academy at Annapolis Md., yesterday afternoon the football team of the Episcopal High School defeated the eleven composed of "plebs," or fourth-class midshipmen, by 6 to 0.

MR. CARLIN'S ELECTION STATEMENT.

Congressman Charles C. Carlin, of the Eighth district, who outdistanced his republican rival in the election of a week ago, has filed his statement of election expenses, and he certifies that for postage, traveling expenses, hall rent and all other purposes he expended $115. That is the sum total, and the items are set forth in detail. Mr. Carlin is the second of the candidates to file expense accounts, showing promptness in complying with the law.

FINED TEN DOLLARS.

Henry Little, colored, who had been arrested by Chief Gads and Officer Sherwood, for an assault on Edward Julius, colored, with a pistol, was brought before the Police Court this morning. The assault was made last Saturday night. Little was fined $10. This was the only case before the court this morning.

DEATH OF MR. MILLER.

Mr. Llewellyn Miller, for many years a well-known general life insurance agent for Baltimore and one of the most active Episcopalians in that city, died yesterday at his home, 149 west Laval street. Mr. Miller was a son of William Hartshorne and Amy A. Miller, and was born in Alexandria, January 14, 1840. He was educated in the Friends School at Westtown, Pa. Mr. Miller's parents were Quakers, but early in life he became a member of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, where he was confirmed. He is survived by a widow, who was Miss Mary Farnestock Van Arsdale; a son, Mr. Laurence M. Miller, and three daughters—Miss Amy P. Miller, Miss Alice W. Miller and Mrs. Knox Taylor, of High Bridge, New Jersey. The funeral will take place from Memorial Church, Baltimore, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

ALEXANDRIAN RESCUED.

Several weeks ago McPherson Mason, son of Mr. Richard Mason, of this city, left this port on a schooner which was to bring a load of wood to this city. He did not return on the vessel, but shipped on a barge which took on a load of oyster shells in Smith's creek for a point down the bay. The boat started on her trip last Wednesday and was out in the bay when a brisk and cold northwest wind was prevailing. The barge was swamped and the captain and mate drowned. The cook managed to keep all at and was picked up by a passing boat. It was supposed that young Mason was drowned, but, according to a statement in a Washington paper, it is thought he clung to an overturned barrel and was picked up by a vessel on the way down the bay for a load of apples which she was to carry to Baltimore.

GEORGE WASHINGTON PARK.

On Monday a number of engineers, under Mr. D. J. Howell, began laying out the streets and sacking the lots in section 2 of George Washington Park. As soon as this is completed the streets will be outlined and then the lot owners in both sections will meet and decide upon proper action for the future. The association has held up action in the improvements waiting on the co-operation of the railroads, the county and the lot owners, after the second section lot owners had selected their committee. There is little doubt that the work of improvement will go rapidly on from this time, especially after spring opens. The next allotment of lots in section No. 2 will take place November 24.

RECRUIT OR DISBAND.

Adjutant-General Anderson, after perusing the report of Colonel Jo Lane Stern, the assistant inspector-general of the State, has issued an order to the militia of the State, all companies getting a copy, directing that they proceed at once, where they are below the minimum, to recruit their ranks, and unless this is done the orders will be issued directing that they be ordered up for inspection and disbanded.

Col. O. A. Dempsey, retired, detailed for service with the Virginia volunteers, will make a tour of the State and visit each of the commands for the purpose of instructing the officers and men in the preliminary details and principles of small-arm practice. Col. Dempsey inspects the Alexandria Light Infantry on the 30th instant.

DEATHS.

Mr. Edward Fleming, an old and well-known citizen, died at his home, 530 north Columbus street, at 3 o'clock this morning. He leaves a widow and four children—Mr. Edward J. Fleming, and Misses Annie, Margaret G. and Mary Fleming. The deceased was 67 years of age and had resided in Alexandria for half a century.

Mrs. Mary J. Rice died at the residence of her son, Mr. J. W. Rice, 457 M street, n. w., Washington, at an early hour this morning. The deceased was in her 86th year. The interment will be at Manassas.

MR. MEYER'S ADDRESS.

Rev. Louis Meyer, an Israelitish evangelist, delivered an address in the Second Presbyterian Church last night. Owing to the inclemency of the weather, the congregation was not large. Mr. Meyer's address was interesting and practical throughout. Rev. James H. Taylor, of Washington, was unable to be present. Several Hebrew residents of this city were in attendance.

DIVORCE GRANTED.

Mrs. Jane T. Wright was granted an absolute divorce from Zolie A. Wright, by a decree signed by Justice Anderson, of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, yesterday. The complainant is allowed by the decree to resume her maiden name of O'Reilly. The pair were married in Alexandria, January, 1908, and it is said lived together less than two months.

PERSONAL.

Mr. William M. Larmour, who spent the summer in the mountains on the Pacific coast, has returned to Alexandria, his native city.

ENTERTAINMENT.

To night the amusement lovers of this city will be furnished a rare treat in motion pictures as there will be something entirely new at each of the three houses.

A the Alexandria Amusement Company an excellent programme will be on a rounding in meritment. The programme will consist of "The Miller, His Son and an Ass," "A Fable of Fontaine," "The Fortune Hunters," which is a good story. There is comfort here as the house is spacious and the management takes good care of all who come. "Jim is Fond of Garlic," a comedy, will also be presented, which alone is worth the price of admission.

The Franklinds are still amusing the fun-loving public who nightly visit the Opera House and the entertainment is up-to-date in every particular. Something new is featured each night. Mrs. Frankford will introduce the celebrated fire dance, wearing 75 yards of silk. The blending of colors is something marvelous. Mrs. Dolores Stevens will again delight the audience with her charming soprano.

When one stops to think of the magnificent pictures shown nightly at the Elkie Picture Company, on upper King street, he is filled with wonder and amazement as to how so much entertainment can be furnished for 5 cents. Tonight 3,000 feet of film will be used in the exhibition of the following pictures: "Vacuum Cleaner," "Ucile's Fortune," and "What an Advertisement Brings," and "Two Models." These are all good and you should see them.

The Hess kind is the best kind. They wear when others fail. We are sole agents for the famous Hess shoe for men. J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

New York Stock Market.

New York, November 12.—There was some heavy selling by two or three houses handling accounts of western speculative interests and the market declined ranging about one point in half a dozen stocks that have been prominent all through the upward movement. Outside of this selling there was nothing of a depressing influence in any quarter.

LOCAL BREVITIES.
